WREB Examinations.

Western Regional Examining Board, an Arizona non-profit corporation ("WREB") is a national dental and dental hygiene testing agency that administers examinations that test candidates' clinical skills.

No Affiliation with Schools.

The WREB examinations are typically administered at various dental hygiene schools and universities (individually, a "School" and collectively, the "Schools") around the country. Other than administering an examination at a School, WREB has no relationship or affiliation with any of the Schools. The relationship between WREB, the School, and you is strictly a contractual one and not an employer/employee relationship.

Limitation of Liability, Assumption of Risk, and Indemnity.

WREB and the Schools cannot, and therefore, do not assume any responsibility or liability for your health status. If a mercury contamination or other injury occurs during the course of the examination, neither WREB nor the School assumes any duty or responsibility to you for any health care service. It is your responsibility to see a licensed health care professional and initiate appropriate management and follow-up care.

You hereby expressly agree to assume the risk for any damages you may suffer due to (1) mercury contamination, or (2) other injuries occurring during the WREB examination. You agree to indemnify WREB against and hold WREB harmless from any and all losses, claims, demands, damages, assessments, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) of every kind, nature or description resulting from, arising out of or relating to your health care, status, or condition before, during, or after the examination.

Delays.

If the administration of the exam is prevented or delayed by any cause or causes beyond the reasonable control of WREB, including, but not limited to: power outage at the Schools; acts of nature; acts of criminals or public enemy; war; riot; official or unofficial acts; inability to secure materials; restrictive government orders; regulation or laws; third-party labor disputes or strikes; or any other cause not the fault of WREB (collectively referred to as "Events"), then you acknowledge and agree that WREB will not be responsible or liable for any delay, cost, expense, or inconvenience as a result of an Event.

I hereby state that I have read and understand this Disclosure, Limitation of Liability and Indemnity Agreement and agree to its terms.
